

Mike!

WE ARE OUTTA HERE

Yes, It's true the 4 words you have been waiting for (maybe even praying for This past couple of years has brought many memories. One of them is a person whom I care for a great deal. He is a soccer STUD with a killer smile :) (especially if you ask my mom!) He is an art critic and a crazy person to run around the woods with and shoot total strangers with paint guns. He will also lose when it comes to scuffing shoes (jk) He was wonderful to have in world lit and kept Brooke from going crazy when she thought I went over a cliff some time around 3 AM on Flagstaff Mt. (oops) But most of all He was a great friend, Yes, I'm talking about YOU Mr. Mike Clark!

Thank you for everything! You have the power and the talent to make all your dreams come true. You are a terrific guy and I better see lots of you this summer!
